Lyn Wagner-Ditzhazy designs are wearable relics that resonate with those who are drawn to the avant-garde and original. Each piece is carefully created by Lyn in her home studio using sterling and fine silvers, copper and custom cuts of unqualified stones from accomplished lapidarists. Processes of hand finishing, surface work and metal colorations result in the final product.

“Her Philosophy is: Jewelry is an expression of the individual. It can define a mood...make a first impression or a lasting one...symbolize love and remembrance...or just be admired. Jewelry is an investment of art to be worn and appreciated.
