President's Message

Karen Zyczynski
zyczynski2002@aol.com

ADVOCATE FOR ISSUES IMPORTANT TO WOMEN

During these tumultuous times we need to be advocating for the issues that directly impact us as women. Even though we are a non-partisan organization, we can advocate for and against legislation related to our mission. Things that impact women's health, equity, voting rights, financial security, education and more.

One way to do this is to sign up to be a Two Minute Activist on the AAUW website. Periodically you will be asked to contact your National Leaders by sending an already prepared letter. You will likely receive a response from those individuals you contact. Another way is to call your National and State Legislators and leave a succinct message on the issues that are of concern to you and women in general. We need to make our voices heard!

On a lighter note, the planning committee for our Annual Meeting in May has been hard at work. By the time you receive this newsletter you should have received your invitation to this annual event. The committee hopes you will take the opportunity to join us on May 13 for dinner at The Garage. We do have a few surprises for you!

Our visit to the Plymouth Art and Recreation Complex (PARC) in March was an enlightening event. It was a great example of a way to repurpose an old building into something new and exciting. Thank you, Carol Souchock, for arranging this program location for us.

Attracting new members is essential to the survival of us as a viable organization and so our April Meeting is focused on bringing a friend or friends to the meeting to learn more about us and to enjoy the program. A bonus for anyone joining that evening is a reduced membership rate for their first year. Check out the Membership Page in this newsletter for more details.

One of my favorite quotes seems appropriate at this time and so I have included it at the bottom of the page.

Company purchased the building in 2018. Learn about its extraordinary transformation process and how adaptive reuse of the historic station connects Detroit's past to its promising future.

The program will start at 6:45 p.m. and be followed by a brief business meeting.

BOARD BRIEFS - March, 2025

Your board met on March 24.

Invitations for the Annual meeting and dinner have been mailed to members.

Positions are vacant for Vice-President of programming and nominations committee.

NCCWSL will be sending students to Maryland in the Spring.

Two Novi students have been selected as scholarship recipients and will be invited to the annual dinner.

Motion from the Scholarship committee: “Waive the Treasurer item 15 and the Educational Gifts/Advocacy item 7 of the Policy and Procedures, which requires the scholarship check to be written to the student and the college. In its place, the scholarship check will be written to the student.” Motion carried.

The 50th anniversary committee is busy researching archives and planning for the event at Genitti’s.

AAUW Public Policy Priorities

Copied from the AAUW website to assist you in the upcoming election.

The AAUW Public Policy Committee and Board of Directors recommend the following changes to the Public Policy Priorities. The deadline for comments has now closed. Members will vote on the changes beginning in April 2025.

The document was reformatted to provide a better distinction between the guiding principles of AAUW's public policy work at all levels, and the biennial action priorities for AAUW National's federal advocacy work over the next two years.

Recommended changes

The proposed principles continue to emphasize core values regarding education, economic security and social justice. The proposal removes issues that, while valuable and important components to equity, go beyond the scope of AAUW's focus on higher education and were so broad as to not provide guidance on the types of policy approaches that would be in line with AAUW's mission.

The proposed policy priorities for federal advocacy focus on equity in higher education and are chosen based on critical need, political viability, and potential for distinctive AAUW contribution or leadership.

Below is a summary of proposed changes for 2025-2027:

- Specific endorsement of the 2024 Title IX regulations which provide increased support for student survivors of sexual harassment and assault and clarify Title IX protections for students who are LGBTQ+, pregnant, or parenting.
- Clear articulation of support for inclusion of LGBTQ+ individuals in policies around school and workplace protections.
- Emphasis on specific components important for women's economic security including education, pay equity, caregiving burdens, retirement safety nets, and access to contraception and abortion.
- Recognition that the Equal Rights Amendment has met the constitutional requirements for ratification as articulated in the U.S. Constitution.
- Removal of broad statements about poverty reduction, housing, health care for all, gun violence, immigration, and campaign finance reform.

- Clear articulation that AAUW’s public policy focus is domestic

AAUW Public Policy Principles and 2025-2027 Biennial Action Priorities
December 4, 2024

The Public Policy Principles underscore AAUW’s mission to advance gender equity for women and girls through research, education, and advocacy. They establish principles for action on which AAUW members across the country focus their advocacy efforts. They guide the work of the AAUW’s federal priorities and that of AAUW state organizations and branches on state and local issue advocacy efforts.

AAUW positions are shaped by our commitment to equity by being nonpartisan, evidence-based, experience-driven, inclusive, and intersectional. AAUW opposes all forms of discrimination on the basis of age, disability, race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, geographical location, national origin, religious beliefs, pregnancy or parental status or socioeconomic status, and supports constitutional protection for the civil rights of all individuals. AAUW believes in the need to end white supremacy and address structural and systemic racism. Efforts to advance racial, ethnic, and gender justice must be embedded into every policy initiative.

AAUW stands for Education

- Public Education:
 - o Investing in strong public education systems which provide equitable high quality public K-12 education
 - o Opposing the use of public funds for nonpublic elementary and secondary education and for charter schools that do not adhere to the same civil rights and accountability standards as required of other public schools
 - o Closing the learning and opportunity gaps that disproportionately affect students from low-income and underserved groups
- Inclusive Curriculum:
 - o Ensuring all curriculum represents historically accurate information, information based on scientific consensus, and is free from religious bias
- STEM Opportunities:
 - o Closing the gender gap in the science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM) education
 - o Expanding access for women in technical and vocational education and training that leads to lucrative employment
- Enforcement of Inclusive Title IX Rules and Other Civil Rights Statutes:
 - o Vigorous enforcement of the 2024 Title IX rules, and other protections against sex-based harassment and discrimination in schools
 - o Prohibiting harassment and bullying in schools with specific enumeration of students on the basis of disability, race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, sex-based stereotypes and characteristics, pregnancy or parental status

- Affordable post-secondary education:
 - Increasing equitable access to higher education, which is affordable and yields high-quality credentials or degrees

AAUW stands for Economic Security

- Pay Equity:
 - Ensuring equal pay and benefits for equal work regardless of gender, identity, or location
 - Addressing the multiple factors that reinforce the gender and racial pay gaps, through increasing salary transparency, eliminating salary history to set future wages, increasing the minimum wage, and addressing root causes of occupational segregation
 - Expansion and enforcement of employment discrimination statutes
- Mitigation of Caregiving:
 - Improving access to paid sick leave, medical leave, safe leave, affordable child and elder care, and other policies that mitigate the unequal burden on women for caregiving responsibilities
- Retirement Safety Nets:
 - Robust and strong Medicaid, Medicare, and Social Security systems and oppose any efforts to undermine them, including privatization and block grant proposals
- Reproductive Freedom:
 - Ensuring access to contraception and abortion care for all women regardless of location

AAUW stands for Social Justice and Civil Rights

- Constitutional Rights:
 - Vigorous enforcement of and full access to civil and constitutional rights, including recognition and publication of the Equal Rights Amendment
- Expanding Voting Rights:
 - Expanding voting rights to promote diverse, inclusive and equitable political participation
- Freedom from Harassment and Violence:
 - Ensuring that people who are subject to harassment or violence based on age, disability, race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, geographical location, national origin, religious beliefs, pregnancy or parental status have full protection and recourse under the law
 - Supporting policies to end gender-based violence, including reauthorization of the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA)
 - Supporting policies that address the prevention of human trafficking and protection of its victims

- International and Civil Rights:
 - o Supporting U.S. advancement towards the gender equity goals on education and the economy in the Beijing Declaration and Platform for Action
 - o Supporting ratification of the U.N. Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW)

2025-2027 Biennial Action Priorities

AAUW's Biennial Action Priorities for federal action are chosen according to the criteria of viability, critical need, strong member support, and potential for distinctive AAUW contribution or leadership. These national priorities inform state and local action. Additional priorities may be added based on circumstances. No order of importance for the priorities is implied.

To support equitable access to higher education that promotes gender fairness, equity, diversity and inclusivity, and to address the barriers and implicit biases that hinder the advancement of women and girls, AAUW advocates for:

- Vigorous protection of the 2024 update to Title IX regulations that provide clear directives to build safer and more inclusive institutions for all students, including student survivors of sexual violence, pregnant and parenting students, LGBTQ+ students
- Ensuring institutions of higher education are accessible to all students regardless of socioeconomic status, the environment is inclusive, and free from political intervention around curriculum
- Reducing barriers to postsecondary success, specifically for women of color, including increasing investment in financial support for degree programs, campus childcare programs
- Policies that support working women in pursuit of higher education, including increased access to paid leave, access to contraception and abortion care, affordable high-quality child care.

Vice President Programs - Mary Ann MacLaren

I have been involved with AAUW since the late 1980's when I joined the Wyandotte/Downriver Branch. Involvement at that branch included Public Policy Chair and Used Book Sale Chair. I was Branch President in the mid 1990's.

After moving to Plymouth, it took until 2013 to find my home with this branch. I am the current Communications Chair and believe that some of those responsibilities overlap those of programs. With the input from all members, we will plan great programs for the 2025-2026 year.

I have been active in most of our fundraising events and play Mah Jong. Outside of this branch, I am Chair of the Plymouth Township Environment Leadership Commission and have a sewing/alterations business out of my home.

Treasurer - Janice Wargo

Janice Wargo

I am currently treasurer and would like to continue in that position for another term. I am also a member of the program committee and participate in several interest groups. I am retired and worked in the financial services industry.

I volunteer at the Northville and Livonia libraries, participate in the Mah Jongg group, play in a pinochle group and am learning to play bridge. My husband, Jerry, and I enjoy traveling and visiting grandchildren.
